

16th Global Conference on Sustainable Manufacturing

October 2-4, 2018 | Lexington, KY USA

Become a Sponsor for GCSM 2018!

Becoming a sponsor of the 16th Global Conference on Sustainable Manufacturing, jointly organized by the Institute for Sustainable Manufacturing at the University of Kentucky, the Technical University of Berlin, and Fraunhofer IPK, will give you an opportunity to connect with and promote your organization to world-renowned experts and other industry leaders in sustainable manufacturing. It is also a great opportunity to showcase your organization’s expertise in sustainable manufacturing and related areas to demonstrate the innovative practices of your organization. There are several different sponsorship levels available.

Industry Sponsorship Levels:

Gold - $5,000: This will include two paid registrations, a display table in exhibit area/banner, invitation to serve as a keynote industry speaker and/or panelist, acknowledgement during program, in Proceedings and on the web. Gold sponsor will also be invited to participate in judging of student posters. A Resume Book of PhD and MS students will be shared and one-on-one meetings will be arranged upon request.

Silver - $2,500: This will include one paid registration, a display table in exhibit area/banner, invitation to serve as a keynote industry speaker and/or panelist, acknowledgement during program, in Proceedings and on the web. Gold sponsor will also be invited to participate in judging of student posters.

Bronze - $1,000: This will include the opportunity to display a banner in the exhibit area, acknowledgement during the program, in Proceedings and on the web. One registration will be offered at 50% discount.

Special Named Sponsorship opportunities for the Welcome Reception (October 1, 2018), Banquet Dinner (at the Horse Park on October 3, 2018), and Lunches (October 2 – 4, 2018). Named sponsorship for the Welcome Reception and lunches will be $7,500 and $10,000 for the banquet Dinner.
